MS. NICOLE KILGORE

Capability Program Executive CBRND

Ms. Nicole Kilgore is the Capability Program Executive Chemical, Biological, Radiological and Nuclear (CPE CBRN) Defense. Ms. Kilgore leads civilian and military multi-disciplinary teams whose mission is to protect U.S. Joint Forces and the nation from CBRN threats by generating affordable and state-of-the-art capabilities. As an Army acquisition professional and scientist, she brings a unique blend of expertise to the CBRN defense portfolio.

Most recently, Ms. Kilgore was the Deputy Joint Program Executive Officer for CBRND, where she provided management and technical direction to the entire portfolio, the headquarters functions, and the Chief of Staff.

Previously, Ms. Kilgore was the Acting Deputy JPEO for Assisted Acquisition/Medical (COVID-19 Response). In this role, she focused primarily on the Medical and Protection Portfolios and led coordination of the Defense Department's COVID-19 Joint Assisted Acquisition efforts in support of the Department of Health and Human Services.

Other previous assignments include several positions of increasing responsibility within the JPM CBRN Medical. Her previous positions included Deputy Joint Project Manager (JPM) for CBRN Medical ;Chief of Staff; Joint Product Lead, Platforms for Rapid Integrated Solutions for Medical Countermeasures; Joint Product Manager and Deputy Joint Product Manager, Joint Vaccine Acquisition Program; Primary Manager, Filovirus Vaccine Program; and Science Manager, Medical Identification and Treatment Systems. She also previously served as Acting Medical Director, Office of Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Chemical and Biological Defense. Prior to joining the Department of Defense, Ms. Kilgore was the Senior Manager of Virology and Safety Operations for Panacos Pharmaceuticals.

Ms. Kilgore holds a Bachelor of Science in Biology from Mount Saint Mary's College; a Master of Science in Biomedical Sciences from Hood College; and Master of Science in National Resource Strategy from the National Defense University, Eisenhower School. Most recently, she attended leadership courses at Carnegie Mellon University, University of North Carolina's Kenan-Flagler Business School and Defense Acquisition University's Executive Program Manager's Course.

She is a member of the Army Acquisition Corps, DAWIA Level III certified in Program Management, and an Advanced Project Management Professional. Her leadership has led to numerous awards including the Army Superior Unit Award (Mar '20-Jan '21), Office of the Secretary of Defense's Award of Excellence in 2021, Office of the Secretary of Defense's Joint Meritorious Unit Award in 2021 and the Superior Civilian Service Award.
